Description

A rare piece: a large period curtain from the late 19th or early 20th century. It is made of natural linen, with a beautiful drape and a lovely ecru hue, featuring a lace frieze with hand-embroidered netting on a hand-knotted grid of regular square meshes, decorated with a rich figurative iconography inspired by the Neo-Renaissance. The frieze, at the bottom of the panel, depicts a couple in period costume, surrounded by stylized foliage. The entire piece is framed at the top and bottom by superb geometric animal-motif bands, finished with a fine bobbin lace border at the bottom. Original linen ties are present at the top, ready to be tied to the rings on a curtain rod. The dimensions are: 138 cm wide x 185 cm long. It is in very good condition, and the linen is of high quality.
