Description

Belgian Art Deco side chair made of solid oak, dating from the 1920s. The backrest and seat are upholstered in the original yellow fabric, secured with brass upholstery tacks. The base features a zigzag brace, typical of the Art Deco style. The chair is in good overall condition, with light, normal wear on the fabric and a beautiful original patina on the wood. No restoration has been performed. It may be part of a matching set of several identical chairs.
