Description

Hand-held mirror in chiseled bronze gilded with mercury. Equipped with a ring, it can be hung on the wall. A piece from the Empire and Restoration periods, it dates from the 1810s-1820s. Exceptionally fine craftsmanship. A beautiful object for the dressing table of a "précieuse," reflecting the lifestyle of high society in the very early 19th century. Ideal for complementing a bedroom decor in the Empire-Restoration style. In perfect condition. With beautiful matte and glossy gilding, it remains virtually in mint condition despite being over 200 years old. Length: 23.8 cm Diameter: 12.5 cm
