Description

This large-format bedside holy water font dates from the Napoleon III period (19th century). A high-end object of private devotion, likely given as a First Communion gift in the late 19th century. Gilded bronze and cloisonné enamel featuring arabesques, volutes, and stylized flowers on a turquoise and royal blue background, adorned with the Christological monogram "IHS." Hand-painted porcelain plaque depicting a solemn sacred scene (signed CR PARIS). The entire piece rests on a scalloped onyx base. Monogrammed on the back and dated June 9, 1887
