Description

Pair of Baccarat decanters - "Djeddah" model - Engraved and gilded crystal - Circa 1946
An elegant and rare pair of Baccarat crystal carafes, "Djeddah" model, dating from the 1940s, circa 1946. These remarkable carafes feature a particularly refined, flattened shape, enlivened on the sides by flowing panels and topped with their original crystal stoppers, cut to extend the silhouette. The crystal is adorned with a very rich engraved design accented with gold, inspired by Oriental motifs: birds, animals, lush vegetation, scrolls, and arabesques are intricately rendered across the entire surface with great finesse. The stoppers also feature this delicate gilded decoration. The necks are accented with gold fillets, adding a beautiful finishing touch to the entire piece. The Djeddah model perfectly
