Description

Dressing table Marquetry and bronze XXth century, early An elegant dressing table featuring a large oval bronze mirror flanked by two torch-style supports, resting on two small cabinets with opening doors; the cabinetry is decorated with marquetry depicting ribbons and flower-filled baskets shaped like hats. The supports are fluted and feature "asparagus" reed-and-tie detailing, accented with gilded mounts in the form of ribbon-tied medallions and foliage. The central section houses two drawers--fitted with bronze laurel-wreath pulls--beneath a glass top. The piece stands on eight tapered legs. Wiring meets European standards but should be checked; a quote is available upon request.
