Description

Large oval tray made of painted sheet metal from the Directoire-Empire period, featuring rich red and gold decoration consisting of a wide garland of flowers and foliage, and, on the rim, a frieze of pearls and water leaves. Two side handles. The black underside bears an inscription painted in white: "30 p." Considering its age, the tray and its decoration are in very good condition. Note, however, a circular mark left by a container. Early 19th century. A truly beautiful decorative piece! Length: 74 cm; width: 57.5 cm; height: 3.5 cm.
