Description

Gold-plated shirt set consisting of a pair of cufflinks and three shirt buttons with swing-back shanks. All five buttons feature a relief design of a woman's profile with long hair, inhaling the scent of a flowering branch--a characteristic of the Art Nouveau aesthetic. Square "Savard & Fils" hallmarks (second half of the 19th century / early 20th century) with the inscription "TITRE FIXE" inside the backs. Dimensions of the two buttons: 19 mm. Dimensions of the three buttons: 10 mm. Included is another gold-plated hinged button from the 1880s by Charles MURAT "CM" with the inscription "DEPOSE" on the shank. Button dimensions: 7 mm. The set is delivered in a damaged box.
