

Large Slate Sundial From The Louis XIV Period, By Thierry De Maissieres

2 100 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Width : 78

Height : 71

Description

An important and beautiful Louis XIV-era sundial, dated 1688Thierry, Canon of Maissières and mathematician to the King, bearing a coat of arms and the names of numerous towns, A late 17th-century piece with beveled edges, the slate plate (formerly cracked) has been "glued" onto a custom-sized black marble plateA beautiful and rare artifact with signs of wear on the slate, yet still featuring a very "attractive" patina

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000