

French Edwardian Belle époque Négligé Necklace With 1.8 Ct Rose-cut Diamonds In Platinum

3 360 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Platinum

Description

Belle Époque "négligé" necklace in platinum.
Antique "négligé" pendant necklace composed of a delicate elongated rectangular-link chain holding an openwork oval motif highlighted with rose-cut diamonds. Suspended from this central element are two drops adorned with two diamonds, terminating in two larger diamonds of 0.80 carat each. Antique necklace, circa 1910-1920, France. Mascarón hallmark
Chain length: 41.5 cm - Motif height with drops: 4.5 cm
- Width: 1.6 cm
Total estimated diamond weight: 2.05 ct
Condition: fine scratches from wear
Weight: 5.71 g
The antique box is not sold with the piece of jewelry

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004