Description

An elegant étagère made of solid walnut dating from the late 19th century, characterized by refined craftsmanship. The slender structure features five contoured shelves with wavy profiles, supported by turned columns and embellished with volute-carved decorative elements at the top. The quality of the wood and its warm patina lend this piece an authentic and timeless charm, making it ideal for classic or eclectic interiors. Equipped with practical original casters that make it easy to move, this étagère combines functionality and elegance. Perfect as a bookshelf, display unit, or accent piece to showcase decorative items.
