Description

Large Jansen-style coffee table - Polychrome wood and double tempered glass top - 1970sA very beautiful and substantial coffee table, Jansen-style, dating from the 1970s. It features an elegant polychrome wooden base, which is particularly decorative, composed of fluted legs with curved lines and finished with beautiful scroll feet. The polychrome finish, blending shades of green, gold, and patina, perfectly highlights the neoclassical character of this design. The table is fitted with a double tempered glass top: a large rectangular upper top and a lower shelf, which maintain a beautiful sense of visual lightness while highlighting the craftsmanship of the base. With its generous dimensions, this table makes a stunning decorative piece for a large living room, in both
