Description

Oil on canvas by Alfred Justin Blondeau (19th-century French School), depicting a Mediterranean landscape. Alfred Justin Blondeau, a French landscape and seascape painter born in 1850. He is known as the "Painter of the Riviera" because, although he painted various landscapes, Alfred Justin Blondeau is especially sought after for his views of the Mediterranean and the French Riviera. He immortalized the harbor of Villefranche-sur-Mer, fishermen at work, and especially the entrances to the port of Nice. He possessed a classic, luminous Post-Impressionist style. He particularly excelled at scenes of twilight or sunsets. One of his works can be found at the Museum of Nice! Painter listed on Artprice and in the Bénézit, represented in the Museum of Nice. Signed lower left. Canvas dimensions: 41 x
