Description

A lovely little slanted desk made of walnut veneer and solid walnut. Walnut burl marquetry with satin-finish borders The flap features marquetry made of ovoid cubes of sycamore, rosewood, and violetwood. This piece retains its original locks Inside, also made of walnut, is a hidden compartment that opens with a set of wooden pegs. A beautiful piece, this well-crafted desk... The veneer is very thick, and all the drawers are fitted with dovetail joints... The interior of the drawers is made of fir.
