Description

An elegant Italian-designed dining set from the 1970s, consisting of a round table and four matching chairs, characterized by a minimalist and refined aesthetic that perfectly embodies the modernist style of the era. The table features a 1 cm thick circular smoked black glass top, supported by a distinctive base composed of four chrome-plated metal tubes, a design that provides visual lightness and great stability. The tabletop is intact and free of cracks. The four matching chairs feature an ergonomic seat with dark red fabric upholstery, a backrest made of black plastic, and a matching base with four chrome-plated metal tubes, in perfect harmony with the table. The entire set is in excellent overall condition, with only slight and normal signs of aging and use, fully consistent with its age. A set with great
