Description

A rare antique Burmese bronze fragment depicting the head and shoulders of the Buddha, dating from the 14th to 16th century. Preserved in an evocative excavated state, the bronze displays clear evidence of having remained buried for many centuries. The beautifully aged surface retains a fine and entirely original antique patina, giving the sculpture considerable character and archaeological presence. Mounted on a later wooden display stand. Total height including stand: 12 cm Height of the bronze: 8.2 cm SOLD WITH A CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY It is possible to pay in installments.
