Description

An exceptional 6-millimeter-caliber parlor pistol. The round barrel is decorated with alternating fluting and chiseled with foliage motifs; the top of the barrel, near the hammer, features the same design. The hammer is chiseled with a chiseled, bridged back featuring a finger rest, and is scalloped and chiseled. The butt cap is scalloped and chiseled, tapering to a spindle shape. The ebony frame is entirely decorated with deep engravings, foliage scrolls, and fluting. A 19th-century piece of exceptional craftsmanship and rare beauty, in perfect working condition. Length: 38.5 cm Height: 17 cm
