Description

Welcome to my shop. An elegant and imposing English Silver Sugar Caster / shaker in solid silver, crafted by the Birmingham silversmith William Devenport. It was hallmarked in Birmingham and bears the date letter "K," corresponding to the year 1934. This octagonal shaker is crafted in the Neo-Georgian style. Its stepped base supports a faceted body that extends into a tall, slightly flared neck. The removable, domed lid is beautifully openworked with stylized floral and foliage motifs. It is topped with a handle shaped like a floral bud. The body and lid bear the following English hallmarks: Silversmith's mark W.D. for William Devenport Birmingham Assay Office anchor Passing lion guaranteeing sterling silver at 925/1000 Date letter K for 1934 Standing 23 cm
