Description

Commemorative religious medal made of metal (or silver?) with polychrome enamel (blue, white, green, and red), featuring rich Christian iconography: the Holy Spirit (dove) above two praying angels surrounding a chalice and a radiant host marked with the chrismon "IHS." Liturgical inscriptions in Latin and French ("Baptism", "Confirmation", "First Communion"), as well as biblical quotations, and two dates: June 17, 1865 (engraved on the left side ribbon) for the baptism and June 24, 1877 (engraved in the lower central cartouche) for the First Communion. Crafted by the famous Parisian goldsmith Marc GUEYTON
