Description

5 antique perfume bottles or toilet bottles, made of molded and cut glass in the Art Deco style (circa 1920-1930). This iconic model, attributed to the prestigious Belgian crystal manufacturer Val Saint-Lambert, stands out for its magnificent two-tone contrast and refined geometric design. Aesthetic details: Alternating sections of clear, transparent crystal and amber/honey-yellow sections. The bodies of the bottles are adorned with diamond-point motifs and cut arches. Caps: Each bottle is topped with its matching original cap, cut into the shape of a faceted sphere.
