Description

An elegant oil on canvas signed by André Schmitt and dated 1934, depicting a delicate floral still life. The composition features a generous bouquet of white and pink peonies, arranged in two vases of contrasting shapes and materials. The artist renders the flowers with an expressive and luminous touch, bringing out the shades of white, pink, and green against a gray-green background. The painting is set in a large carved and gilded wooden frame, richly adorned with rocaille motifs and scrollwork, which emphasizes the decorative nature of the work. Dimensions: -76x66 (with frame)-65x54.5 (without frame)
