Description

A stunning Art Nouveau-style decorative terracotta plaque depicting an elegant young woman reclining amid a botanical setting. This particularly refined composition features a female figure with long, flowing hair, surrounded by branches, foliage, and plant motifs characteristic of the Art Nouveau aesthetic. The high-relief treatment subtly highlights the details of the face, hair, drapery, and vegetation. It is signed within the design and bears the mark of the manufacturer Goldscheider, a Viennese workshop renowned for its artistic productions from the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
