Description

Louis XV-style tea table
Three-shelf dessert table, crafted from a rich wood with deep hues and a magnificent natural grain
The upper shelves feature clear glass inserts that lend the piece a light and airy appearance
These shelves are surrounded by an ornamental openwork brass railing
The table rests on elegant, slightly curved cabriole legs, characteristic of the late 19th-century Neo-French style
Restored by our workshop, it still shows some signs of wear on the glass and the legs, consistent with its age and use 48 cm wide, 34 cm deep, and 73 cm high
Handcrafted piece from the late 19th century / early 20th century
