Description

A very elegant pair of white marble pedestals, each adorned in the center with a green marble plaque. The contrast between the two marbles lends the set a rich decorative quality and great elegance. The understated beauty of the white marble is enhanced by the depth of the green marble, creating a particularly refined interplay of materials and colors. These pedestals are ideal for displaying sculptures, vases, or works of art and can blend seamlessly into both classic and more contemporary interiors. A refined and decorative pair, particularly well-suited for showcasing works of art. Period: 20th century
