Description

An exceptional pair of very large 19th-century vasesA very beautiful and imposing pair of vases dating from the 19th century, remarkable for their generous dimensions, elegance, and striking decorative presence.Their magnificent chiseled work gives them a particularly refined relief and a sense of movement, highlighting their elegant lines and rich decoration. Crafted in the style of the grand decorative pieces of the 19th century, these vases feature a balanced silhouette and an exceptional presence.Their large size allows them to serve as true architectural elements within an interior. Presented as a pair, they will be particularly striking when placed on either side of an entryway, a fireplace, or in a large living room.They are perfectly suited for a historic home, a mansion, or a design project seeking
