Description

A striking and charming pair of andirons decorated with a wine theme. A pair of finely chiseled and gilded bronze andirons in the 19th-century Louis XV style, featuring two child Bacchuses holding bunches of grapes on a base adorned with acanthus leaves, volutes, and foliage scrolls. This elegant pair of andirons has retained its beautiful period gilding, which remains very brilliant (with a few minor signs of wear, which is quite normal), set against equally high-quality engraving. Pair of andirons in the 18th-century "Grand Siècle" style.
