Gien Earthenware Cake Stand, Blue Iron-glazed, "empire" Style, Late 19th Century

150 EUR

Signature : Gien

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 25 cm

Width : 25 cm

Height : 5 cm

Description

Late 19th-century "Empire" style blue iron-glazed Gien earthenware cake standCreated by the artisan painters and potters of the Gien factory (Loiret, France), this freestanding cake stand features a so-called "Empire" design in blue and white with laurel motifs and medallions of swans and birds, entirely hand-painted.The Gien factory is an internationally renowned institution in the world of French earthenware and tableware. Founded in 1821 by the English industrialist Thomas Edme Hulm, with the ambition of creating earthenware using French techniques in an English style.This rarer "Empire" design dates from the 1890s. The "Empire" design incorporates Empire-era motifs such as laurel leaves and a rich, structured decorative scheme.Fast and careful shipping to France,

Dealer

l'Antochine

Antiquities from XVIIth to XXth century, Religious Art & Asian Arts

Mobile : 0783636220

La Ferté-Saint-Aubin 45240

Europe, and worldwide.Dimensions-> Height: 5 cm-> Width: 25 cm-> Length: 25 cm-> Weight: 850 grams