Description

Large five-light wall sconce in gilded bronze, richly chiseled, decorated with foliage, scrolls, shells, and volutes in an exuberant Rocaille style. The dynamic composition is organized around a prominent central motif from which seven sinuous light arms extend; the lampshades and finials are adorned with foliage motifs and Rocaille-inspired forms. The piece as a whole displays fine quality engraving, particularly evident in the rendering of the foliage, rocaille motifs, and ornamental details. France - 19th century
