Description

Chinese bronze vase with champlévé enamel
Made of bronze with a dark patina, decorated with champlévé enamel
The champlévé technique involves carving or casting recesses directly into the bronze, then filling them with colored glass
It features an archaic-style form organized into superimposed horizontal bands
The motifs include traditional intertwined geometric bands, stylized key-shaped volutes, and figurative scenes in bas-relief around the base
It is flanked by two distinct zoomorphic side handles, modeled in the shape of stylized archaic dragons
In good vintage condition, showing slight signs of wear consistent with its age and use 27.5 cm wide, 24 cm deep, and 36.5 cm high
Total weight: 5.3 kg
Handcrafted piece from the late 19th century / early 20th century
