Description

Paul HANNAUX (1899-1954) - Young Woman at Her Dressing Table (or Daydreaming by the Window) A superb original drawing in India ink and gray wash on paper by Paul Hannaux, a renowned French painter, illustrator, and decorator (Prix de Rome in 1924). This intimate and modern composition depicts a young woman seated in profile near a window with shutters, holding a powder compact or a mirror. The mastery of the ink line combined with the subtle nuances of the wash lends a beautiful depth and a subdued atmosphere, characteristic of the artist's figure work. Technique: Indian ink and wash on paper. Signature: Signed lower right (to be confirmed based on visual presence under the mat). Period: 20th century (circa 1930-1940). Condition: The work is in good
