3 600 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

An exquisite set consisting of eight Neapolitan Louis XVI chairs, dating from the late 18th century. The elegant backrests feature the characteristic inverted "Y" shape typical of Neapolitan production from that period, finely carved and decorated.The wooden frame is embellished with rich Mecca silver gilding, a highly prized decorative technique that lends the surface a soft, iridescent sheen, particularly prized in the aristocratic furnishings of the Kingdom of Naples. The carved edges, turned legs, and carved volutes attest to the high quality of craftsmanship.The seats, upholstered in light-colored fabric, maintain a understated elegance that harmonizes beautifully with the frame's rich decoration.A cohesive and rare set, ideal for enriching a dining room or reception
