Description

A pair of 19th-century pink opaline oil lamps, adorned with rich hand-painted decorations of floral garlands and bows, accented with delicate gold fillets. Each lamp is mounted on a brass frame and topped with a finely engraved frosted glass globe. The set exemplifies refined decorative craftsmanship and a style characteristic of elegant 19th-century interiors. With their decorative presence and impressive height, these two lamps form a particularly refined set, ideal for enhancing a classic interior, a home with character, or enriching a collection of art objects. Height: 77 cm
