Description

An elegant and rare small oak desk, center table or small dining table from the Louis XVI period of the 18th century. A very beautiful desk featuring superb carved crossbars. All the crossbars are carved with a typical Louis XVI motif. rectangular top with rounded corners and a small corbin spout. The desk rests on four tapered, fluted legs ending in spindle feet. The wooden crossbar is also decorated with small circles, which is uncommon and a sign of the desk's fine quality. In perfect condition with a superb patina. Height below the waistline: 62 cm. Delivery available in Belgium, in France, and internationally. On display in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request
