Description

Blown glass vase with polychrome murrine - Schiavon Murano, 1/1Exceptional unique blown glass vase, made in Murano and signed at the base "Schiavon Murano 1/1" in diamond-point engraving.This remarkable piece is the result of a complex and highly refined sequence of traditional glassmaking techniques. The inner structure is made of blown black glass, covered with a rich composition of polychrome glass-paste murrine, which have been patiently worked and carved using diamond grinding wheels.The decoration features a sophisticated horizontal and vertical carving technique, particularly difficult to execute, creating a striking three-dimensional effect and remarkable depth across the surface. The contrast between the deep black glass ground and the brightly
