Description

Tang Dynasty-style war horse sculpture in black nephrite jade, mid-20th century. A creation from the mid-20th-century Chinese folk and decorative arts tradition, this black jade (nephrite) sculpture depicts a Tang-style war horse. The Tang Dynasty (618-907) left a profound mark on Chinese history, representing the golden age of Chinese civilization, characterized by unparalleled economic prosperity, military power, and cultural openness. The horse is a major symbol in Chinese culture, representing bravery and prestige. Here, it is depicted with a raised hoof and adorned with a war harness that demonstrates its power, crafted from a noble and revered material: black nephrite jade. Rare and in excellent condition, this distinctive sculpture will be appreciated in a home that appreciates the charms of the Far East.
