Description

Solid silver egg cup hallmarked "Vieillard" (1st grade, Paris, 1819-1838) and bearing the Paris "Moyenne Garantie" hallmark, featuring an applied* decoration of a coat of arms consisting of a shield supported by two rampant and facing lions, all surmounted by a marquis's crown, with a stylized floral frieze above, dating from the first half of the 19th century. This egg cup is in very good condition and is of remarkable quality. Hallmarked on the bottom--see photos.* The term "appliqué" refers to one (or more) decorative elements carved and chiseled separately--often a cartouche, a garland, or a coat of arms (as in this case)--which is then soldered onto the smooth body of the object to give it relief. In the case of this egg cup, it features a beautiful floral garland encircling it and a coat of arms chased beneath
