Description

Maggiolini games table in rosewood, walnut, and fruitwoods, late 18th century. Dimensions: 78x82x82 cm. Origin: Italy An exquisite games table with a fold-over top, crafted by Giuseppe Maggiolini in the late 18th century. The table features a magnificent inlaid top: a central hexagonal medallion framed by borders of lighter wood and a dark border with foliate inlay. The corners are adorned with inlays depicting a pair of dolphins flanking a central shell. The truncated-pyramid legs and the apron are decorated with light-wood stringing. The underside of the top is lined with dark Moroccan leather. Giuseppe Maggiolini's workshop in Parabiago was renowned for this type of games table--characterized by simple lines yet elevated by exceptional marquetry tops made from fine
