Description

An eight-light ceiling chandelier, featuring an elegant gilded iron frame typical of late 19th-century Italy. The lights are arranged on a double tier, creating a striking yet harmonious effect. The pendants, made of colored and clear glass, depict a variety of fruits, adding a touch of color and originality. The sheet-metal bobeches are skillfully crafted with leaf motifs, highlighting the attention to detail typical of the period. This chandelier not only illuminates but also enriches the space with its artistic and historical presence. ANILLA0305027
