Description

This pair of "Coronado" armchairs, designed in the 1970s by Afra and Tobia Scarpa, are an icon of Italian design. Manufactured by B&B Italia, these armchairs feature foam padding that ensures comfort and durability, while the brown leather upholstery lends them a timeless elegance. The inviting design is accentuated by the skillfully crafted leather, which features a natural patina typical of well-preserved vintage furniture. Ideal for enhancing spaces with a modern or classic aesthetic, these armchairs fit perfectly into both residential and commercial settings. In good condition, they offer comfortable seating and refined aesthetics, showcasing the craftsmanship and quality of Made in Italy. MOSEPO0323675
