Description

An elegant pair of French corner cabinets from the Napoleon III period, second half of the 19th century, featuring refined polychrome chinoiserie decoration on an ebonized black background. The corner cabinets feature a polygonal structure, with surfaces in ebonized and black-lacquered wood, richly decorated with Oriental-style motifs depicting flowers, branches, birds, landscapes, architectural elements, and naturalistic motifs. The painted decoration is further enhanced by refined decorative brass inlays, particularly prominent along the edges of the tops, which lend elegance and sophistication to the pieces as a whole. The upper section is crowned by a striking, sculpted, and dynamically shaped apron--also decorated in the chinoiserie style--which accentuates the pieces' remarkable visual presence. Inside, the
