

18th-century Tortoiseshell And Fine Gold Box

1 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Round box made of tortoiseshell and 18K yellow and rose gold. The lid is adorned with a painted medallion-shaped miniature depicting a bust of Marie-Louise de Brachet de Floressac, Countess of Reclesne (1767-1853); her face, with expressive brown eyes and a shy smile, is framed by a profusion of powder-gray hair falling in curls over her shoulders. She is dressed in a gray, silky gown with a deep neckline, dotted with white stripes that shimmer, and finished with a large draped bow. French work from the late 18th century. Miniature by Mathis (1786-1803), signed at the bottom on the right side. D: 7.7 cm Weight: 84.8 g. Miniature: 4.9 x 4 cm This precious box is in good condition. A few minor chips on the tortoiseshell rim.
