

Art Nouveau-style Vermeil And Cut Crystal Travel Liqueur Bottle

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Vermeil

Height : 10,7cm

Description

Travel liqueur bottle in vermeil and Art Nouveau-cut crystal. Minerva hallmark, fineness mark, and goldsmith's mark "MR," along with a pitcher for Maria Remy, engraved on September 15, 1894, and struck through on February 20, 1924, at 13 Rue Thevenot, Paris. The body of the crystal bottle is cut with a carnation motif. It is in very good condition, complete with its small internal crystal stopper; there are some very minor chips at the base of the vermeil stopper. Height: 10.7 cm. Discover many other items on our personal website: <https://www.temps-dantan.fr/>

Dealer

Temps d'antan

Antiquités

Mobile : 0689180835

Le Bricollet

Lentilly 69210