Description

The category antique paintings, landscape paintings, presented here features a refined antique oil painting on canvas, dating from the 19th century.

The antique painting depicts a delicate and harmonious naturalistic view, in which a small pond occupies the foreground, reflecting the light tones of the sky and surrounding vegetation.

An elegant balance between water, meadow, trees and sky, depicting the countryside of Dordogne, a region in south-western

France characterised by rural landscapes, waterways, woods and vast natural expanses, with an atmosphere of peace and naturalness.

This is an antique painting; the work is signed by Théodore Gardère, a painter, art enthusiast and
