Description

A pair of wall-mounted shelves designed to hold decorative items. The shelves are highly decorative and made of Dresden porcelain, ; the two shelves feature an elegant contoured shape and are characterized by rich polychrome floral decoration, with numerous flowers and leaves modeled and applied in relief. The surface is further embellished with delicate hand-painted bouquets, ornamental motifs, and gold filigree. Particularly noteworthy is the craftsmanship of the three-dimensional applied flowers, individually modeled and distributed along the body and edges of the display stands, creating a very rich and striking decorative effect. The "Dresden" mark is present on the back. Period: 20th century Provenance: Germany, Dresden Material: porcelain Decoration:
