Description

Blue-and-white Chinese porcelain plate decorated with dragons and floral motifs. China, probably 18th-19th century. Round porcelain plate with underglaze blue decoration. The body is adorned with an elegant floral design, complemented by foliage and stylized plant motifs. The rim features stylized dragon motifs, with two dragon heads facing each other on either side of the composition--a characteristic element of Chinese decorative art. Mark painted in blue on the underside. Former metal display mount on the reverse. Diameter: 20 cm.
