Henri Rivière (1864-1951) was a French painter, engraver, and illustrator. He began his career in drawing and then moved on to intaglio engraving, specifically etching, in 1882. At the same time, in 1886, he began a career as a director and set designer for shadow plays at the Cabaret du Chat Noir, enhancing these performances with highly innovative, colorful sets. He then devoted himself exclusively to painting and printmaking and made his mark in
