? Oil on panel, height 21 cm, width 15 cm? Bears a signature "G. Cavagnaro" (or similar) in the lower right corner; artist not definitively identified, surname of Italian origin? Italian school, dating to the first half of the 20th century? Interior church scene: a clergyman, arms raised, directs a row of altar boys in white albs, in front of a wall adorned with two paintings in the style of the Old Masters--a Virgin and Child and a scene depicting horsemen and soldiers; an amusing mise en abîme in which the bold and naive execution of the foreground contrasts with the grand history painting depicted in the background
