Description

Elegant pair of appliques crafted from finely carved wood, featuring gold-leaf gilding and an Empire-green painted finish. They are distinguished by their green-painted foliage and decorative gilded rosettes, which add a touch of refinement. Each wall sconce features a single light, with a lost-wax cast bronze arm and a candle holder. Both pieces have been electrified. This is a pair of appliques of great taste and sophistication, capable of adding a touch of class and antique charm to any interior. Tuscan manufacture, Louis XVI period, late 18th century.
