Description

Chest of drawers from Maison Roméo, Paris, attributed to Jean-Claude Mahey, dating from the 1970s. Model with four wide drawers, clad in black panels and accented with gilded metal trim. The drawer fronts are fitted with matching cylindrical handles. The top is made of black glass, with black sides as well; the entire unit rests on a recessed base. Dimensions: W 120 × D 47 × H 75 cm. Condition reflects its age. A few subtle marks and scratches are visible on the surfaces and metal parts. Small, subtle white spots are present on the glass top and visible in the photographs.
