Description

Jean COMMÈRE (1920-1986) Fisherman in His Boat (descriptive title) Oil on canvas, 14 × 22 cm (1P), signed lower right. (ref. 1002 in the artist's inventory) The Artist: Jean Commère (1920-1986) was a French painter, draftsman, watercolorist, and printmaker. Trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Angers and later at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, he developed a highly personal figurative style after the war, characterized by a free and energetic brushstroke and a pronounced taste for color. Notably, he won the Othon-Friesz Prize in 1952. His landscapes, genre scenes, seascapes, and figures constitute a significant part of his body of work. A very lovely small format, but above all a highly decorative work despite its size. The texture, the vibrant color palette, and the almost graphic composition
